

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY STATEMENT

RUTLAND
PLASTICS

Right People Right Partner

It is the policy of Rutland Plastics Limited to ensure the impact processes and materials used within the organisation have on the environment are controlled.

In meeting these environmental needs, which will be constantly reviewed, the company is fully committed to complying with the requirements of BS EN ISO 14001: 2015, and to achieving the environmental objectives set during the management review meetings.

Instructions and procedures detailed within Rutland Plastics Limited Environmental Management System, demonstrate the company's commitment to the prevention of pollution and continual improvement of the system and all related processes within the defined scope. Reviews of the effectiveness of the environmental management system, along with the suitability of the environmental objectives and policy shall be done during the management review meeting.

Rutland Plastics Ltd is committed to complying with all applicable Legal and other requirements which relate to the environmental aspects of their activities, products and services. Evaluation of compliance will be carried out routinely to prevent deviation from our objectives and targets.

Rutland Plastics Limited further recognises that the responsibility for environmental issues is not limited to those specifically designated to maintain that discipline, environmental objectives shall be communicated to all employees, therefore, ensuring that everyone fully appreciates the importance of the environment and therefore undertake their individual duties accordingly.